

For Immediate Release
Wednesday, March 2, 2011

Contact: Jeannie Roberts
216-288-8941
DegeeterforParma@gmail.com

Endorsements roll in for DeGeeter

PARMA – Already carrying the official endorsement of the Parma Democratic Party, Tim DeGeeter has gained several more in his bid to become Parma’s next mayor, earning high praise from several city leaders.

“Tim’s experience and record in the state Legislature shows that he has what it takes to save and keep jobs as well as attract new businesses to our city. His energy and passion is critical to the future of Parma.” said Marty Vittardi, Parma Clerk of Court.

Tim Dobeck, Parma Law Director, added, “The City of Parma faces challenges. Tim DeGeeter has the energy, knowledge and passion to face these challenges head-on and keep Parma as a great place to live and raise a family.”

And Parma City Treasurer Anthony Zielinski chimed in, “State Representative Tim DeGeeter has that rare talent of being a consensus builder. In every elected position Tim has held, he has always been highly respected, and members of both parties have been more than pleased to work with him. The City of Parma needs this type of leadership as we continue our fight during these difficult economic times. Tim is the right candidate, at the right time for Parma Mayor.”

DeGeeter has also gained the support of Parma City Council members Nick Celebrezze (Ward 3), Brian Day (Ward 4), Tom Regas (Ward 5), Larry Napoli (Ward 6), Ken Ramser (Ward 7) and Scott Tuma (Ward 8).

“I’m honored to receive these endorsements because these are the city leaders who work every day to make our city great,” DeGeeter said. “As Mayor of Parma, I would be honored to work with them to help create and save jobs here, keep our neighborhoods safe, and ensure fiscal responsibility at City Hall.”

DeGeeter will face three other candidates in the Democratic primary on May 3.

-30-